RG104 E-1 Box 174

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., December 4, 1891.

The Superintendent, U. S. Mint,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

Referring to your letter of the 3rd. inst, relative to the output of minor coins, my anxiety in regard to the same was so great that I yesterday requested the shipment of $25,000 in five cent nickel pieces and $25,000 in one cent bronze pieces from the assistant treasury at New York to your mint.

As soon as they are received, which will probably be to-day or to morrow, I will thank you to put as much of your force as can be spared, in shipping them to the parties from whom you have orders unpaid.

I see no necessity for waiting four days. Where the drafts are certified checks on New York or Philadelphia banks one or two days should be sufficient. I am opposed to allowing a large balance of unpaid orders to accumulate, and think every effort should be made to keep this balance as small as possible.

I will thank you to work the orders as closely as possible.

Very respectfully,

E. O. Leech

Director.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 174

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.
December 4, 1891

The Superintendent, U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

Referring to your letter of the 3rd inst, relative to the output of minor coins, my anxiety in regard to the same was so great that I yesterday requested the shipment of $25,000 in five cent nickel pieces and $25,000 in one cent bronze pieces from the assistant treasury at New York to your mint.

As soon as they are received, which will probably be to-day or to morrow, I will thank you to put as much of your force as can be spared, in shipping them to the parties from whom you have orders unpaid.

I see no necessity for waiting for days. Where the drafts are certified checks on New York or Philadelphia banks one or two days should be sufficient. I am opposed to allowing a large balance of unpaid order to accumulate, and think every effort should be made to keep this balance as small as possible.

I will thank you to work the orders as closely as possible.

Very respectfully,
E.O. Leech
Director.